

No evidence has been shown that relaxing the ownership regulations benefits the consumers. If anything evidence suggests it harms the interests of consumers. Do not relax the regulations. Consumers need more voices on tv and radio and in newspapers not fewer. The health of our country depends on it.